What is the GetMyFirstJob Ambassador Network?

The GetMyFirstJob Ambassador Network is a group of ambassadors who volunteer to share their experiences throughout the first steps of their career journey.

The aim of the network is to inspire people and tell them about the variety of opportunities that are available to them after school, college, university, or further on in life.

As our network grows, we really want you to be at the forefront! From sharing your story as a profile on our website, to getting involved in social media content creation, blogs and events, there is lots you can get involved in to inspire others.>

What do GetMyFirstJob Ambassadors do?

There are three different pathways you can take to be an ambassador...

Ambassador

You will share your story that will be live on the GetMyFirstJob site. Your story will also be linked to your employer's profile, if possible, and used in any email communications coming from GetMyFirstJob.

Ambassador+

As well as sharing your story, you will also be part of a network of active ambassadors who will get involved in social media content creation, guest blogs, events etc. To be an Ambassador+ you must attend the monthly calls where possible, and contribute ideas and content for the network. If you select to be an Ambassador+, the team at GetMyFirstJob will have a call with you to discuss the opportunity in more detail and chat through next steps.

Ambassador Alumni

This pathway is for those who have completed their apprenticeship or graduate programme but would still like to share their story and be involved in some of the additional activities. Your story will need to be updated to include your journey post apprenticeship/graduate scheme. You will not be expected to join all monthly calls, only those you can, but we'll still keep you in the loop with what you can get involved in, if you have capacity.

PS. Whatever you choose, you can change your mind at any time!

Sometimes, going to university isn't a choice for everyone. That was the case for Umayr. But now, he's winning awards, featuring in national marketing campaigns, being invited to the House of Lords, and raising awareness for apprenticeship routes.

Here's his story...

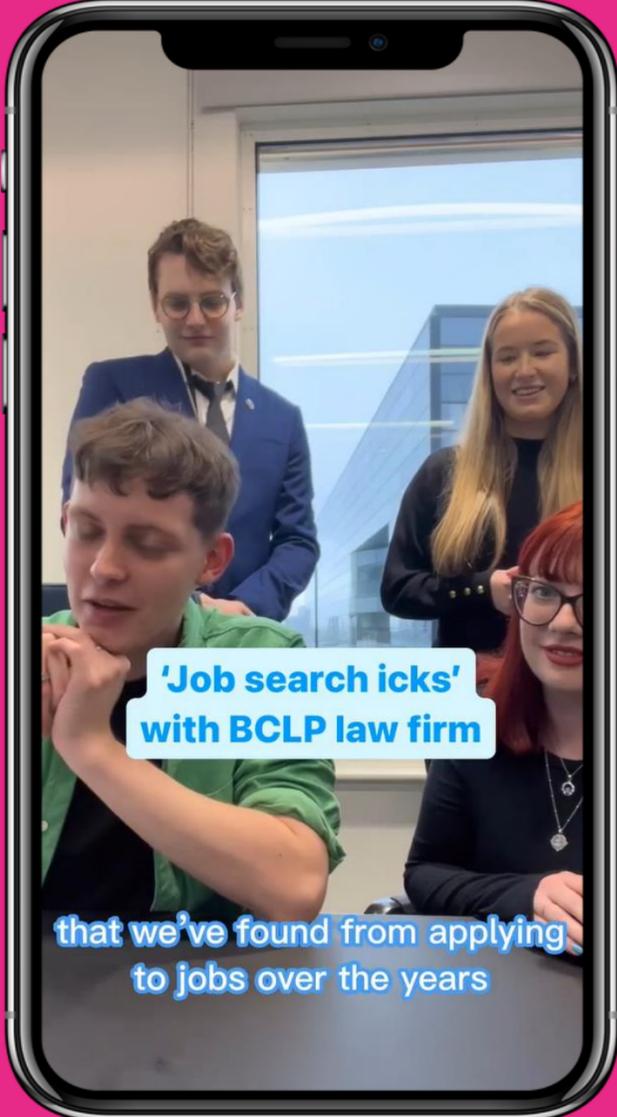

From studying maths at university and working as a part-time Barista at Costa Coffee, Katie shares her story of how she ended up working as a full-time CMO Marketing Graduate at the very place she started...
